

Rua Red Studio Application

Rua Red offers low cost working spaces for visual artists.

The open call for applications for studios in 2021 will open winter 2020. Studios are allocated for a period of between 1 to 3 years.

Your application should include:

1. A cover letter
2. A current CV and documentation of your work (jpeg images and web showreels)
3. Studio work plan
4. Artist statement
5. An image list

The selection committee bases its decision solely on what you provide.

Cover Letter

Tell us, in detail, how you hope to use the studio, e.g. to work on a commission, to prepare for an exhibition. Include a work plan, giving details of what materials and processes you use and any other requirements you have.

Tell us for how long you will need your studio. Studios will be offered for an initial 12 month period with a potential to extend that term to a maximum of three years, project dependent.

A start date will be offered in this round.

CV and Documentation

Send us an up-to-date CV (3 pages max) with documentation and any of the following:

- Up to six still images (Jpeg files only which must be less than 1MB each)
- Video showreel: web address (e.g. YouTube or Vimeo) of up to 6 minutes of footage
- Please note that it is the applicant's responsibility to ensure technical compatibility of all application documentation uploaded.
